THE BREVITY BASKET.

Filled With Brief Mention of Many Minor Events of Yesterday.

A dead colored infant was found on a vacant lot at Twelfth and V streets. The will of Aaron Dimkins, filed with the register yesterday, bequeaths the estate to the children of the deceased.

The cases of Thornton K. Richardson, embezzlement, and Louis Magrader, assault, will be called for trial in the criminal court

In the police court Frank Sampson was charged with permitting gaming on his premises, and the case was continued until next Thursday.

A colored man, named James Campbell, was charged in the police court yesterday with burglarizing the house of Mrs. Margaret Jones, colored, No. 359 L street southwest. The case was sent to the grand jury, and the defendant was committed.

In the United States supreme court yes-terday a rule was granted upon the judges of the district supreme court to show cause why the mandamus prayed for by Capt. A. Grant should not be awarded. The rule is made returnable on the fourteenth of October next.

In the case of Lorin Blodgett, trustee, vs. Grant et al., (involving the title to the Jamacia tract), as to defendants, Creswell and Barber, the complainant has filed security for costs, Eugene L. Lucas going on the bond. Judge James has approved the bond. bond.

The prize of $100 and a gold medal has been awarded to Ensign W. I. Chambers, U. S. N., for the best essay on the "Reconstruction of the Navy." He will be unable to be present at the discussion of his paper, owing to his orders to the Greely relief expedition, which he is expected to join in a few days.

A meeting of the Cornell Alumni associa A meeting of the Cornell Alumni associa-tion will be held in the bureau of education this evening at 8 o'clock. The attendance of all former Cornell students is carnestly re-quested, as officers of the association for the ensuing year are to be elected. Other sub-jects of importance will also be brought to the attention of the meeting.

The Baltimore and Potomac railroad com-The Baltimore and Potomac railroad com-pany has commenced the erection of a wooden picket fence on each side of their tracks from the depot building to the tunnel. This fence is only a temporary one, which will be super-seded by an iron railing as soon as the latter is in readiness. The workmen are now on K street, near fourth, southeast,

The grand jury yesterday in the criminal court presented true bills against John D. Chollsr and Edwin C. Mason, larceny; Chas. Butler, larceny; Louis Karcher, murder of John W. Grimes; Abraham Blockman, embezzlement; Vincent Flood, larceny from person; Joseph McCauley, violating section 5467, beach warrant returned; committed.

The President has ordered a pardon to be The President has ordered a pardon to be issued for Abraham M. Smith, Pleasant White, and Robert Dent, who were convicted a few months ago of the highway robbery of George Emmert, jr., and each sentenced to five years in the ponitentiary. They were convicted principally on the evidence of Wash Meredith, a notorious negro thief, who was recently acquitted on a charge and left the city. It is understood that the pardons were recommended by Judge Wylie and Assistant District Attorney Coyle.

A Candidate for the Penitentiary. A Washington youth "to fortune and to fame unknown," has invented a dime museum scheme, which will certainly bring him before the public and the police court as well if the matter comes to the ears of Agent Key, of the Humane society. The youth proposes to rent a vacant store on Pennsylvania avenue and exhibit a trio of dancing turkeys. He says he can make more mouey than the fellows did who exhibited the headless rooster. A REPUBLICAN reporter asked him how he proposed to make the turkeys dance. "That is easy enough," he said. "I will inclose them in a large box with glass sides and a zinc floor. Underneath the box I will station about six oil lamps, and when any spectators come in I will touch a spring and turn on the fire. At the same instant the hand organ will begin to play a lively air. The zinc floor will become almost red hot. Turkeys have very sensitive feet, and the only thing left for them to do will be to dance lively, and they will do it in regular break-down style. It is a mighty good scheme, and entirely original. fore the public and the police court as well if

A Probable Prize Fight.

Sporting circles in this city are much interested in the proposed fight between Dan terested in the proposed fight between Dan Toumey, of South Washington, and William Marshall. Mr. Toumey issued the following acceptance last night: "I did not challenge William Marshall, and do not know him. But since he appears to be a friend of Benton and O'Brien, the men I did challenge, I will fight him (Marshall) a square battle at any time for from $100 to $500. He must not weigh over 140 pounds (give or take two pounds). I name Mr. John Rooney as my second, and will accept all of the provisions in Marshall's challenge. Marshall or as my second, and will accept all of the pro-visions in Marshall's challenge. Marshall or his friends can find me and my money at any time at No. 300 L street southwest. I am not seeking notoriety, but want to satisfy certain Washington bulldozers that they cannot bulldoze me. I mean business."

A Notable Reunion.

A reunion of the Carter family, including all who bear the name of Carter, will be held at Woburn, Mass., on June 11, 1884. Grand at worth, Mass., on June 11, 1881. Orand preparations are being made for the gathering. Hon, H. A. P. Carter, of Washington, will be president of the day. The programme will include addresses, music, and printed reports of genealogical facts, histories, &c. There are 283 Carter families in this city. If the whole delegation attends the reunion it would number at least a thousand from the capital city alone. from the capital city alone.

Lost-Two Bibles. The two old grease-sonked Bibles at the police court were interviewed by a REPUBLI-CAN reporter several days ago. One of the books stated that they had been in service for nearly five years, during which time they had been kissed at least one hundred thousand times. Last Sunday the twin Bibles were abducted from the rack attached to the witness stand, and yesterday the witnesses were smilingly greeted by a pair of brand new books, with clean yellow covers.

A Type Thief.

A colored type thief,named Edward Jackson, was arrested yesterday by Detective Block, He is charged with the larceny of $57 worth of job type from the office of Joseph M. Jo-hannes, 407 Eleventh street. Jackson will be charged with housebreaking in the night. All of the property was neatly recovered by
